Biggleswade & District Camera Club

Description

Biggleswade & District Camera Club are a group of approximately 50 photographers, male and female, of all ages who meet weekly to learn more about the art of photography. If you enjoy taking photos and want to increase your knowledge of the subject, then please come along to a meeting. We have a varied programme of meetings that includes visiting speakers who present their work or give tuition, club and inter-club competitions judged by impartial judges, practical, tuition and social evenings and a chance to show others your work. We also get together for photographic trips and visits to exhibitions. You do not have to be an expert to join. It does not matter what camera you have; we cater for all formats – digital, prints and audio-visual presentations, (but not video or cine). A warm and friendly welcome awaits you, with help and advice freely given. A grant from the National Lottery 'Awards for All' has enabled the club to buy the latest digital projection equipment, as well as extra lighting for use in studio and still life practical sessions. With every club member now using a digital camera, members can upload their competition images via the club website. There are cups, and certificates for winners and several photographic discounts for all members. We also take part in a number of inter-club competitions. Members may submit a gallery of images for our website. New members welcome.

Sandy Garden & Crafts Show

Description This group was formerly called the Sandy & District Horticultural Association.
We promote and organise the annual Sandy Garden & Crafts Show, which is held on the first Saturday in September each year in the Great Hall of the Sandy Conservative Club in Bedford Road, Sandy
The Show highlights the wealth of expertise and talent in our local area, through competitive entries both in vegetable gardening but also in flower growing and arranging, culinary skills, handicrafts and artwork. All these sections are open to entries from all, regardless of age or skill level.
There are classes that cater specifically for the younger members of our community.
Schedules for the forthcoming 2023 Show will be available on our website shortly.
There are also occasional local open garden visits or speaker meetings – details of which would be posted on our website and Facebook pages.

Day & Time Usually, the third Tuesday of the month at 7.30pm, but this can vary. Please check our website diary & Facebook page for more up to date information.

Sandy Historical Research Group

Description	The group was formed in 2002, in order to preserve as much of Sandy's historical past as possible, for the benefit of the citizens of Sandy and visitors to the town. The group's archive includes more than 3000 photographs, some dating back to the end of the nineteenth/early twentieth century. The group also holds maps, deeds and other relevant documents which help to record the social history of Sandy for a period covering over 200 years. The group's ultimate aim is to acquire suitable premises for a town museum, so that the material and artefacts that have been gathered can be properly displayed for the benefit and education of local people and as an attraction for visitors to the town. In the meantime, the group holds several public exhibitions through the year, either in conjunction with other town events or on a 'standalone' basis at locations like the Baptist and Methodist Church Halls (check local press and posters for details). Membership of the group is £15 per annum and benefits include 2 SHRUB magazines, published twice a year in the Spring and Autumn and free entry to our speaker and standalone events (entry fees may apply for events hosted by other organisers). The group has published two volumes of 'Pictorial Memories of Sandy' and a collection of postcards of old Sandy, copies of which are available online. We also sell our publications including SHRUB magazines at our public events throughout the year. 'Pictorial Memories' are each priced £9.99, postcard packs cost £3.50, and SHRUB magazines are priced in the range of £1.00 to £4.00.
Day & Time	Speaker events on the history of Sandy and the surrounding area are held at local halls and usually cost £4.00 per visitor (members free). If you join on the night, your entry fee will be refunded.

At Exhibitions are held at local halls and usually cost between £2.00 and £4.00 per visitor (members free).
